DEATHS.

—Miss Ella Shipp, aged about 38 years, died at her home in Oklahoma City, Wednesday morning. Miss Shipp was formerly of this city. She had many admiring friends. She recently underwent an operation, which was pronounced successful and she was improving until a sudden change for the worse came. Her weakened condition could not stand the strain and she succumbed to the inevitable.

—She was a half sister of V. K. Shipp and Mrs. M. F. Kenney, of this city, and a full sister of Prof. R. M. Shipp, of Winchester, and Miss Annie Shipp, of E. T. Shipp, of Oklahoma City. The two latter were not at home when their sister passed away, the brother having left recently with his sister Annie for Mexico, in search of a climate for her health, the last heard from them was that Miss Annie was too weak to travel far.

—Miss Shipp's mother died in this city last December while here on a visit. The remains will be brought to Paris for interment, but it is not yet known when they will arrive. However, Rev. J. P. Strocher will conduct the funeral services and the pall bearers will be John Barbee, Wm. Dodson, Roy Clendenen, James Dodge, Chas. Kenney, Harvey Hibler, Sr.,

—Mrs. Linnie Meadows, daughter of Toke Mitchell, of Fulton, formerly cashier of the North Middletown Deposit Bank, died Sunday at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Lovelace, in St. Louis, where she had gone for the benefit of her health. Mrs. Meadows is survived by her husband, W. W. Meadows, a prominent citizen of Fulton. The body arrived here Tuesday and was taken to the home of her uncle, Mr. R. M. Rice, at North Middletown. The funeral services were conducted by Elder C. W. Dick at the grave in the North Middletown cemetery.

—There was a large crowd in Georgetown, Monday, as usual on April court day. The weather was charming. There were 250 cattle on the market, selling at 4 to 5 cents per pound, and yearlings calves at $20 to $25 per head. Costs You Nothing.

Great crowds are daily visiting Doyle's Annex and are loud in their praises of the beautiful home sites. The auction sale will be next Thursday at 3 p. m. Attend and register and get a free chance at a good building lot. Cost you nothing.

Bourbon Democrats Kicking.

The date of Thursday, September 3rd, fixed by the Committee to hold the Congressional Convention at Lexington, is the big day of the Bourbon County Fair, and unfavorable comment is being indulged in on all sides.

If it was known here which candidate picked this date his name would be "Dennis" in old Bourbon. No county sends more people to the Lexington Fair than Bourbon, and it is thought here that it is up to the politicians of Lexington to assist us in having this date changed. Petitions will be forwarded to Chairman Lee asking him to call the committee together once more and change this date.

Distinction Has Many Channels

for expression. Your clown finds it with bells and violent colors. So do tailormen. Instead of bells, they hang on appendages and inflict all manner of arbitrary "stunts" in the design of a garment. Also the violent colors. Upon neither do depend for their distinction. They find it through dignified innovations in the design of a garment; through expressive tailoring which leave the innovations without offense to good taste. Lastly, College Brand Clothes find distinction through fabrics which are never violent in color or design yet ever new, impressive and perhaps a bit daring. Now, you understand why we give the College Brand Clothes the best our shop affords.

Prospects Growing Brighter.

The Democrats in the Senate made a splendid fight against the Aldrich bill. They hammered it so hard and pointed out its defects so forcibly that the majority was compelled to abandon some of its worst features and add several important amendments. It was objectionable as it passed the Senate but less so than when it was introduced. The Democrats of the Senate deserve credit for their consistent fight against it. And now the Democrats of the House are engaged in a struggle against the tyrannical rules that govern that body. Under the leadership of Mr. Williams the Democrats of the house are challenging the Republicans to meet the issues presented by the President. They ask that the Republicans courageously meet the issues presented and either endorse or oppose the President's recommendations. The position taken by the Democrats is a sound one. It is not filibustering to insist upon a vote upon an important question, and the Democrats are demanding a vote upon several important questions. Mr. Williams has announced that the Democrats stand ready to carry out several of the President's recommendations — recommendations that are Democratic, and asks if there are twenty-nine Republicans who will come to the President's rescue. The rules are such that a few men control the house unless the protesting Republicans join with the Democrats to change the rules. Will they do so? Is their support of the President sufficiently earnest to lead them to rebel against the despotism that the rules enables the Speaker to enforce? The Democrats of the Senate and House are making political capital; they are showing the insincerity of the Republican promises of reform; they are convicting the Republican leaders in the Senate and House of actual opposition to every important reform.

Democratic prospects in the nation are bright and growing brighter, and the Democrats of the Senate and House are aiding these prospects by the fight they are making. More strength to their arms.

Wonder If He Does?

Governor Willson started out with the policy that all the State employees should be paid only for the days they work. He announced that he would not appoint any man as a member of the Board of Equalization who would ask for pay for a single day that he had not worked.

When the Legislature passed a bill allowing the guards at the penitentiary, who work seven days in the week, a few days vacation without cutting off their pay, he vetoed the bill. While this has been his declared policy with reference to others, it is not unusual for Governor Willson to be away from his office and out of Frankfort for a week or ten days at a time, pleasure seeking or looking after his private or political business. We wonder if he allows the State any rebate on his salary for the missing days. His salary is $17.80 a day, considerably more than one hundred dollars a week, and for a rebate of $17.80 for each day he has been away from his office on pleasure or private or political business would make quite a snug sum. It is claimed that many citizens who have gone to Frankfort on official business with the Governor have been kept waiting there on expense, until it pleased His Excellency to return to Frankfort.

Wholesome Thoughts.

Judge Mulligan, in his recent speech at Louisville gave expression to the following wholesome thoughts:

"There will be many Democrats as soon as there is an end of petty and scheming politicians. They must pass away. This State is Democratic, and will be again as sure as we stand here. Feud and faction have come down to this people from the beginning. The Kentuckian will always strike back. Now we have the night rider. We blush with shame, but we can remedy it. There are men here who helped to scrape Mr. Bryan's tobacco bed many times, but I, as an original Bryan man, Goebel man and Beckham man, come here tonight and say let us get together."

Or It May Be—

A magazine writer who seems to be "groping blindly in the darkness," says:

"The thing which has made Bryanism again possible may be a mere spinning ecstasy in the nerves of an overwrought people; it may be a slow moral revolution, swinging tidelike from party to party; it may be a recognition of the enduring power of an unsullied manhood, coupled with an incomparable tongue; it may be a mere habit, or it may be a mood of despair in which all candidates retire in favor of one man who has learned how to make defeat pay."

Or it may be that the American people have grown weary of the impositions put upon them by trust magnates posing as "defenders of national honor."

Suffering and Dollars Saved.

E. S. Loper, of Marilla, N. Y., says: "I am a carpenter and have had many severe cuts healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It has saved me suffering and dollars. It is by far the best healing salve I have ever found." Heals burns, sores, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c at Oberfer's, the druggists. apr

THE PERFECT WAY.

Scores Of Paris Citizens Have Learned It.

If you suffer from backache, There is only one way to cure it. The perfect way is to cure the kidneys.

A bad back means sick kidneys. Neglect of it, urinary troubles follow. Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

J. T. Gardner, E. Main street, Carlisle, Ky., says: "I have had a great deal of trouble from disordered kidneys, in fact some years ago my case was said to be incurable. During recent years, my back was very weak and lame and ached almost constantly. The worst annoyance, however, was from the kidney secretions. They were too frequent in action and otherwise disordered. Rheumatic twinges in my hips and loins also bothered me and at times were so acute that it was hard for me to walk. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I obtained a box and had only taken them a short time when I felt a great deal better. Continuing their use I was soon entirely relieved. I know Doan's Kidney Pills to be a valuable kidney remedy and I am willing to give them my strongest endorsement."

Plenty of proof like this from Paris people. Call at J. A. Wilson's drug store and ask what customers report. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other

What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder—curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous dysentery), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections it is often successful in effecting cures.

"The Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities incident to women only. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nerve. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulae of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines. The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Doctor Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pills, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

The Fig.

If any other food surpasses the date
it is the fig of Smyrna or Cresca, wash-fruit mentioned in the Bible, and its succeeded in accomplishing results where all materia medica have failed.

Premier Skating Country.

It is probably safe to say that Ausnation of dancers, its skaters display remarkable delicacy, lightness of touch their rhythm is matchless.

Paris Secret Police.

The secret police of Paris are quite distinct from the regular force. The members are generally unknown to each other, and one detective is often employed to watch another.

Railway Collisions.

A medical paper says that in railway collisions nearly all the passen-fects of shaking and concussion, nat-

End of Governments.

"The end of governments," says Im-bert de St. Amand in one of his studies on the French revolution, "is seldom a natural one. It is generally a suicide.
They perish because, while they possess the force of right, they hesitate to use the right of force."

Lunatic Postoffices.

In the lunatic asylums of Belgium there are securely locked boxes in which every inmate may deposit letters of complaint. Three times a week these letters are collected by outside officials, who investigate every case, and if a person asserts that he is not insane a prompt examination ensues by medical experts.

Harvest Customs.

The United States is about the only country which has no established harvest customs. In some parts harvest celebrations are held, but we have no traditions such as they have abroad.

Sheep and Cold.

Of domestic animals sheep come first as cold resisters. Sheep have lived for weeks buried in snow. When the great blizzard of March, 1891, swept England sheep were dug out alive from the enormous drifts in Devonshire twenty-four days later. Goats and pigs take respectively second and third places.

Egyptian Cloth.

The cloth of the old Egyptians was so good that, although it has been used for thousands of years as wrappings for mummies, the Arabs of today can wear it. It is all of linen, the ancient Egyptians considering wool unclean.

Silver Mines.

The oldest silver mines are in Germany, but the richest are in Spain.

Brain In the Stomach.

The solar plexus is the emotional brain, says Professor Francois Guyot.
An emotion that attacks us is felt there first. Thus if we feel anxiety it may give us, if severe, a positive stomach ache. It may even be productive of nausea.

Long Necked Women.

Women of the Ivory Coast, in Africa, lengthen their necks by wearing iron rings. Every year they put a new ring round the neck, which they can stretch so far that it is nothing unusual to find it as long as the face.

Lignum Vitae.

Lignum vitae, the heaviest as well as toughest wood known to the trade, will outlast brass and is tougher than many grades of steel. A stick of the wood weighs nearly as much as lead.
It is in great demand for warship bearings, and usually the shafts of the immense machinery wear out before the lignum vitae bearings.

A Short Christmas.

"Christmas day is only three hours mas there. At sunrise I got up to see my presents and to read my Christmas mail, and night had fallen before I got through breakfast."

The Nedjee Horse.

A thoroughbred Arabian horse could on an ordinary course be easily distanced by a European racer, but for endurance of fatigue, docility and for speed maintained at long distances, so long as to appear incredible, the Ned-jee horse acknowledges no equal. A good Nedjee will canter for twenty-four hours in summer and forty-eight in winter without requiring drink.

Bradley Was Mad.

Senator-elect, W. O. Bradley arrived here Tuesday afternoon on the 3:30 train and delivered a short address to about 125 of his followers. An open carriage was used as a platform. He looked mad and must have been mad by the way he handled out sledge hammer blows to the Taft followers. He said that Sam Roberts, of the Lexington Leader, "had not been a tadpole long enough to drop his tale and to become a respectable looking frog." He tossed his own horn, blasted the Democrats and finally said that Democrats always attacked you in front, but that a few Republicans were stabbing him in the back. He further said the man that claimed to be his friend and at the same time, was trying to carry Bourbon county for Taft, was a d---n liar. He is no friend of mine. It is said he was looking straight into a certain Republican's eye when he belched forth the above.

His speech was short, but to the point and it was a caution the way he lambasted the Taft leaders. Republican politics here at this time is at fever heat, and we may expect one of the warmest conventions Saturday that has ever been held in this city.

The State Grocers Convention.

The citizens of Paris are making every preparation possible for the entertainment of the large crowd of visitors that will be here next week to attend the State Convention of the Retail Grocers, which will be convened on Tuesday next for two days session. Many of our business houses and residences will be elaborately decorated with flags and bunting, and old Paris will be in gala attire for the occasion. Let everybody take a hand and do a little decorating. A professional decorator will be in the city Monday to do some work for the Paris Association, and if you desire to secure his services see Secretary Chas. Wilmoth.

The free pure food exhibition, which will be given in the old Christian Church, will be something new in this city and should be largely attended by our good housewives. Thirty or forty of the leading manufacturers in the country will have demonstrators here with their goods.

Homaker, the florist, will have an elaborate display that will add to the attractiveness of the occasion. It is the purpose of the managers to have demonstrations in progress during both days of the convention and during the evening hours, which it is believed the people of Bourbon and adjoining counties will turn out in large numbers to see.

The demonstrations will be an educational factor in regard to the purity of those things that enter daily into table consumption.

Kentucky Chimes is a horse of great beauty, speed, style, size and substance; a sensational high actor, and will sire high-class coach horses as well as trotters. It is a well-known fact that the Chimes-Mambrino King family of trotters have produced more 2:10 and 2:15 performers, also more champions on the race track and in the show ring, than any other family known to the trotting horse world; almost every world's record has been held at one time by members of this family, and to-day more world's records are held by them than any other trotting family.

Forest Denmark 153.

This noted sire will make the season of 1908 at my home, on the Harrod's creek pike, 8 miles from Paris and 4 miles from North Middletown, at $20 to Insure a Living Colt.

DESCRIPTION.—Forest Denmark is a solid bay, 16 hands high, has great natural style; carries head and tail high, and is not second to any stallion in Kentucky as a getter of high-priced saddle and harness horses.

He has always been at the head of the stud at Woodford's Stock Farm, Mt. Sterling, Kentucky. I was able to get him from the fact that my father's brood mares are nearly all by him.

Forest Denmark is the sire of the Chancellor that won sixteen blue tie, in 1906, also his mate The Cardinal, which team won, single and double, thirty-eight blue ties in 1907. He has sired three other geldings which sold at an average price of $2,821.

The breeders of Bourbon county have never had, and probably never will have again, the opportunity to breed to the equal of Forest Denmark at $20.

TERMS.—Money due as soon as colts come, mare parted with or bred to another horse. Mares from a distance grazed at $3 a month. Every precaution will be taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but will not be responsible for those that occur.

SEASON 1908

The RIDGE STOCK FAR.

Fee $50 The Season

To Insure a Mare in Foal.

Sam'l Clay,

Paris, - - - Kentucky.

WIGGINS is a horse of attractive conformation, 15 3/4 hands high, full of quality, and with fine feet and legs. In disposition and manners he is perfect. His colts are uniformly good colors and inherit his bold, frictionless way of going. They are generally pure galloped and trot with light shoes and few boots. WIGGINS himself wore a 7-ounce shoe with no boots in front. He was foaled a trotter, and as a yearling trotted a mile over a three-quarter mile track in 2:33 1/4. He took his record when two years old and won five straight stake races and $4,600 that season. Douglas Thomas, his trainer, says he could have trotted a mile over a good track in 2:12. His colts not only trot fast young, but sell for high prices. He was himself a bold finisher and his colts are like him in this respect. For an out-cross for in-bred mares you can't do better than to breed to WIGGINS, though he nicks well with mares of any breeding. No other stallion at the same age has ever accomplished more than WIGGINS. No other stallion of any age ever had three two-year-olds to beat 2:18 trotting in one year. No other stallion ever had seven trotters in 22.0 list at ten years.

WOODLAND ECHO 1382

The High-Class Premium Saddle and Harness Stallion,

Sired by the Great Highland Denmark

By Black Squirrel, he by Black Eagle, he by King William, he by Washington Denmark.

First dam Patsy S., by General Duke (Th), he by Embury's Lexington, he by old Lexington.

Patsy S.'s dam was Minnie Parvin, a great show mare, and Mr. Pat Dolan said she was the finest mare sent to Washington.

Woodland Echo is a rich bay with a star, long, rangy neck, fine head and ear. A very heavy mane and tail, and the best set of legs I ever saw. He is a model in form: 16 hands, weighs 1200 pounds. This horse is a fine type for a cavalry mount and breeds high-class saddle and harness horses. His fine disposition and great stamina have made him a favorite sire. Nearly every colt sold by him sold for $200, and Crete Echo, a two-year-old by him, won over the get of Bourbon King and was sold for a big price.

Interesting Confederate Paper.

At the meeting of the Richard Hawes Chapter D. of C., on Saturday afternoon, Miss Kate Edgar read the following paper which will be of much interest to our readers:

APPRECIATION OF MRS. SHORT.

Mrs. James Short, after a long and useful life, passed away on the morning of January 15, in the 84th year of her age. She was a native of Paris, a woman of unusual decision of character and of strong mental ability. We are told in printed tributes that she was an intense Southern woman and that during the war she made clothes and forwarded them to soldiers on the field.

But it was as a member of our Richard Hawes Chapter of United Daughters of the Confederacy that she revealed to us the intensity of her devotion to the "Lost Cause." As long as she had strength she attended our meetings and contributed and read articles of her own composition—a series of them—which she entitled "Dark Days of the sixties." She said she was not sure about dates, and whether she always gave events in their proper order, but that they were all facts in her own experience and stood out with the same vividness with which they started her when they first occurred.

Living right on Main street, near a hotel, she was in a position to see and hear, and being so intensely interested in the welfare of our soldier boys, she made the most of what she saw and heard. Her yard was frequently filled with soldiers, either Federal or our own. When Gen. Morgan came to Paris after the battle of Cynthiana, he brought eight wounded soldiers with him. By order of Gen. Green Clay Smith Mr. Short was put under arrest and ordered to bring those wounded men to his house to be nursed. He did bring seven (the eighth being Mr. Henry Bullitt, who was released after Col. Craddock and Dr. Barnes became his surety). Mrs. Short nursed these seven men for four weeks, when they were considered well enough to leave her.

Mr. Short was then put in jail and refusing to take the oath of allegiance, was taken off as prisoner. His family and friends tried to buy him a blanket before he was taken away, but could not find one in town, so a gray and black-striped shall was substituted. When asked what else he would have, he replied, "A pound of tea." He and others were taken to Johnson's Island. After some months he wrote his wife that his rheumatism was so acute; he begged that she try to get him a parole to Cincinnati, if she could not to Kentucky. Her account of trying one man in power and then another, of her visit to the prison, etc., was very thrilling, and was always told with flashing eyes. But she carried her point and secured a parole for her husband to Cincinnati. More excited she would become in speaking of her son's capture and when she told how he was accused of being a spy and came near being executed. But she would chuckle over some things.

When the "Big Hill Battle" was fought at Richmond, a German regiment was quartered at Paris. About that time there was a destructive fire across the street from Mrs. Short. Her house was in great danger. Two of her friends stood upon the roof and swept off the burning coals. She was not willing to leave her house unless compelled. Capt. Harry Bedford's command stationed a short distance from town, came into help with the fire. The Captain told her to keep the house closed, and he would turn the hose upon it should there be need. There was no need, but only two houses were left between her and Col. Simms.

Her friends thought it very dangerous for her to remain so exposed with her yard full of Yankee soldiers. Instead of leaving she sent for the commanding officer and asked that her immediate premises be freed of soldiers. While he was saying that all these annoying things were war measures and giving her no satisfaction—but rather assuring her that many Federal troops were any moment expected to enter the town, an orderly brought him a sealed note. Upon reading it he turned pale, but gave no hint of the contents. Bowing himself out he said: "Madam, consider yourself protected by my troops in front." She replied: "Thank you, Colonel, but have seen your troops retreat so often that I have but little fear."

Putting out all lights in the house, she sat up all night watching through the shutters of a front window. She heard from time to time stealthy orders given, troops marched by, at last her own yard was vacated. It was easy to guess that other troops were expected. She called in help to clean up her yard, and sure enough, by break of day, when it was in apple-pie order Gen. Kirby Smith's troops marched in. No Yankee soldier was left in the town—the orderly's note was explained.

Through the fall and early winter, Mrs. Short asked me to take notes frequently of what she recollected of her war experiences, as no one else knew so well how Paris suffered at that time. This I did when she was strong enough to talk. The very Saturday before she was called away she asked her daughter to telephone that she was stronger than usual and would like to see me.

On that occasion she reiterated many things among others that of making her husband a visit in Cincinnati, his telling her that two of our Kentucky boys, Daniels and Hume, I think, were imprisoned in the city, and were in great jeopardy as the were accused of being spies; that they might be executed any day; that some strong Southern sympathizers there would try to help them make their escape if only had the money to hire a skiff to get them over the river to the Kentucky side.

Mrs. Short came right back home, she and a few of her close Southern lady friends went out quietly, no two together, to the gentlemen left in town who were Southern sympathizers and soon secured some money. She asked her little daughter, Florence, seven years old, if she didn't want to go to see her father and take him a little bucket of honey. The child was jubilant. "Well," said her mother, "I shall send you on the morning train, and will send some money in your petticoat for him, but you must be sure not to say one word about having it until you can tell him in a whisper. If you do the bad Yankees may come and put your mother in jail."

The little girl carried out her mother's direction to the letter, the money was used as intended and the scheme for the release of the prisoners most happily carried to success.

When I left her that Saturday morning, Mrs. Short said to her daughter, "I want her to come one more time," but in a few days thereafter she passed to the spirit land.

Her attendance at the Elks building, the evening of our reception of the Daughters of the State, and her bright countenance when our Chapter met with her the following month testify to her devotion to the Confederate cause to the very last, and help us to realize that no one can ever fill the niche left vacant by the passing away of the mother of our organization.

Republican Cocktails.

The New York Sun, which evidently would be well satisfied with Fairbanks as the Republican candidate for President, tries to boost him by publishing a discursive editorial on the preparation of the seductive "cocktail." Still we fancy that Fairbanks would be happier if the Sun would turn its attention to Taft's neglect of his official duties in his attempt to secure delegates and let the cocktail episode alone in these cranky days of Prohibition or, at least, point to the fact that if Fairbanks furnished the cocktails for the feast, it was President Roosevelt who drank them.

CAN ALWAYS TRUST CHINAMEN.

Customs in Celestial Empire Have Made Dishonesty Scarce.

"You soon learn in China that you can trust a Chinaman to carry through anything he agrees to do for you," says Samuel Merwin in Success. "When I reached Tai Yuan-fu I handed my interpreter a Chinese draft for $200 (Mexican), payable to bearer, and told him to go to the bank and bring back the money. I had known John a little more than a week, yet any one who knows China will understand that I was running no appreciable risk. The individual Chinaman is simply a part of a family, the family is part of a neighborhood, the neighborhood is part of a village or district, and so on. If John had disappeared with my money after cashing the draft and afterward been caught, punishment would have been swift and severe. Very likely he would have lost his head. If the authorities had been unable to find John they would have punished his family. Punishment would surely have fallen on somebody."

Deadly Insult.

A New York youngster was caught literally wiping up the street with another boy with whom he was supposed to be on especially friendly terms. The detector of his pugilistic encounter was his mother, who, after she had yanked him into the house, proceeded to deliver a lecture on the sin of fighting. The boy listened for a while in silence.

"That's all right," he broke out at last in uncontrollable indignation. "It's all right for you to talk, but if you just knew what he said about you—"

The pause was significant. The mother took alarm.

"About me?" she said. "Why, what on earth did he say about me?"

"He said," blubbered the small boy in impotent wrath, "that you—wear—petticoats."

Neighborhood Favorite.

Mrs. E. D. Charles, of Harbor, Maine, speaking of Electric Bitters, says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us." It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, nervousness, weakness, malnutrition, kidney derangement, general debility. Its action on the blood, as a thorough purifier makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand attractive tonic is sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50 cents. apr

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

When a rooster finds a big fat worm he calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write letters to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm heartfelt wish of the writer to be of use to someone else. This remedy is for sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee. apr —Junior Endeavors of the Christian church are supporting a child in India. Sunday night was their Easter entertainment and offering which amounted to $50. Twenty-eight members had their dollar made and ready and in a beautiful manner the offering was made. The decorations were beautiful. Solid Comfort.

The John Robinson Big Circus, one of the oldest and best tented organizations in this county, are announcing their date for two performances on May 7. While they have ever been in the van of caterers to show goers, their offering this season promises to outshine any of their former efforts and the bewildering array of imported and domestic talent, will contribute to a program of rare excellence. Every comfort has been provided for the possible patron, and all can attend with the assurance of an afternoon or evening spent without the slightest discomfort. The mammoth tents have been doubly waterproofed, wide commodious seats are provided and courteous ushers will be in attendance to see that you are conducted to your coupon chair, in fact a well appointed theatre can offer no more inducements, as a safeguard to your welfare than this "father of shows."

A Stringent Law.

Gov. Willson has addressed a letter to Adjt. Gen. Johnston calling attention to a law passed several years ago, under which the night riders may be apprehended and punished and property may be guarded against injury or destruction, the guards to be paid out of the county treasury.

The act also provides that officials who fail to act when notified may be punished and that a witness cannot be exempt from testifying because his testimony may incriminate himself.

It is believed the enforcement of this act will solve the night rider troubles if they occur again in any part of the State.

These Magistrates had refused to vote for an appropriation for a new turnpike in the county. Magistrate Bradley had signified his intention of resigning before being asked to.

The night riders also requested Road Supervisor Bruce Massey to resign his office, which he immediately did, which will leave the county without any magisterial government until others can be commissioned by the Governor.

Two Killings in Powell.

A special from Winchester Tuesday morning says two killings occurred Sunday at Eastin's Mill, in Powell county, six miles east of Stanton, which although they occurred at the same place and within a short time of each other, they had no connection. Another coincidence is that they were both over settlements. J. W. Manzing, a well-known citizen of Powell county, and his son-in-law, a man named McNab, quarreled over settlement involving $5 cents. During the quarrel McNab, it is charged, drew a revolver and shot his father-in-law to death. McNab escaped immediately after the killing and has not been captured.

A short time afterward a quarrel arose over a settlement between a young man from Clay county, whose name was not learned, and Isaac Friend, a well-known Powell county man, in which the boy it is alleged, shot Friend to death. He then escaped.
